A. M. MADIGAN, Agent, IRONTON, MO.

From Near Arcadia Heights.

It has been quite a while since our last communication from this point, yet there has been nothing of particular importance observed, as the writer has been away most of the time.

We made a couple of trips not long ago to Farmington, DeLassus, and Doe Run, looking at some farms which were advertised for sale; but the land was entirely too high in price, considering everything, for one who has only a small capital to invest.
Farmington is a nice little city, with schools very much above the average, and we were very favorably impres-sioned with the business and social status of the place, but could not buy land near there, much as we liked the place, owing to the very high price.
Returning home we purchased a farm of 24 acres near Roselle, all the land lying in Iron county; consideration being $1000.00 cash.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whelahan, of Arcadia, are preparing to remove to the Whitworth property near here.
Mrs. W. is a daughter of Mrs. Whitworth, and we understand that Mrs.
Whitworth has deeded this farm to Mrs. Whelahan. We welcome them to this locality, and wish them well in their new home.

The peach trees are beginning to bloom, and unless killed later the yield will be far above the average.

Wheat in most localities looks very inferior, and unless the weather conditions from now on are very favorable we cannot reasonably expect a good crop of that cereal.

Mr. Eli Depew has been sowing oats, and will begin plowing for corn this week.

Quite a number of prospective land buyers have been passing this way for the past two or three weeks, but so far as I have heard not any land has changed hands near this point, with the exception of the Abbey Farm, which a Mr. Myers of Kansas recently bought, paying in trade $3-500.00. Mr. Myers told the writer that if he did not again sell the farm that he would probably do some repairs on the house the coming summer. He had never seen the farm until after he had bought it, but appeared to be fairly well pleased with the trade, as he had traded a farm in the extreme western part of Kansas for it. It is not hard to conjecture what that means, particularly where the land is west of the 100th meridian.

It appears that Villa has made good his escape. It is to be hoped that he may be captured and brought to account for the diabolical outrages he and his bandits have committed. Before the matter is properly settled, it is highly probable that it will cost America many brave men, who will go down in battle. But let the honor of America be maintained, whatever the cost may be. We have been long enough crawling.

H. W. Tapley, of Arcadia, gave the writer a call not long ago.
J. D. Vance, who last week bought the James Austin farm on Marble Creek, will not remove to the farm this spring; that is, unless he succeeds in selling his property on the "Heights."

Mrs. Bollinger made a trip to the Arcadia Heights last week.
Miss Stella Beardsley was confined to her room two days last week, but is now able to be in school again.

Political Pointers.

The best proof we've seen that the Democrats did good work at St. Joe is that the Post-Dispatch is displeased with that work. When the P.-D. and the G.-D. are displeased Democrats should be pleased.

The St. Joe convention wasn't a "cut and dried affair." Every Democrat with a grievance had an opportunity to relieve the "pent-up" at St.
Joe. Now, as a matter of course, he feels better and those capable of self-respect feel just a little ashamed.
That's a splendid sign and contributes mightily to harmony and a united front before the common enemy. The convention was a safety valve and henceforth the agony will be in the enemy's camp.

Democrats should not give credence to the Republican report that certain Democratic leaders have formed a combine to name any portion of the ticket. Republican papers and politicians have recently been busy with a story of that sort. There's not a word of truth in it. It is regrettable that some Democrats have to believe it.
No Democratic leader or combination of leaders would accept the responsibility of naming the ticket or any portion of it, even if the privilege were offered him or them. That's all that the Democrats need. They don't need a Democrat to disregard all such stuff, unless he is full of cussedness and wishes to promote confusion. If there are any Democrats tempted to tattle that tale their case should be investigated and paregoric administered at once.

In a speech opening his campaign for re-election in Massachusetts, Senator Lodge made serious objections to the policy of the Wilson administration with reference to taxes. No surprise about that. The income tax always has been objectionable to Republicans like Lodge. Their policy has been to tax the poor to support the government and pass the hat around to the rich for the support of the Republican campaign. The Wilson administration enacted the income tax and now the rich help support the government instead of the Republican party. Lodge doesn't like it, but the people do.

The prospect for Democratic harmony in Missouri is very disconcerting to the Globe-Democrat and the Post-Dispatch. Their desperate efforts to disturb that harmony have all come to naught. Democrats have learned that these two papers make no effort to keep within hailing distance of the truth when discussing a Democratic State administration, or telling of the political situation in the party in this State.

The interest collected on deposit of State funds during the first three years of the Major administration was $300,000 greater than in any three years of the Haley administration, or any other three years in the history of the State. For fear some Republican may say that the capitol building fund brought in the excess interest, we will state that the record shows that the interest collected on the deposits of the general revenue fund for the same period is over $100,000 greater than that collected on the same fund for any like period of time.
The reason—this administration is getting a higher rate of interest from the bank depositors than any former administration made them pay.

When a Republican tells you that the Democratic State administration has been a failure, ask him for a bill of particulars. Then watch him stutter. He can't speak. Even the Globe-Democrat and Post-Dispatch have no facts, hence they resort to wholesale condemnation that establishes nothing. Democrats need only to present the record to make out the Democratic case and assure a verdict in November.

We are still unable to find those 85.00 calves, $15.00 cows, 3 cent hogs, 50 cent wheat and 15 cent corn the Republican orators told us we'd have if Wilson should be elected. If our Republican friends have any of the aforesaid stuff to sell they refuse to price it according to the above schedule. They're not treating us right.

The Republican party doesn't know whether after June its head is going to look like an elephant or a bull moose. If a moose, then the 1912 trick of elephants will be repeated, recognize the call and fall by the wayside. If an elephant, the 1912 bull moose won't know the bellow and will refuse to gang with the clumsy animals. There's no way of escape.

Doan's Kidney Pills were used—They brought benefit.
The story was told to Ironton residents.
Time has strengthened the evidence.
Has proven the result lasting.
The testimony is from this locality.
The proof convincing.
Joseph Knagge, Fredericktown, Mo., says: "Walking, stooping or lifting always gave me backache and the sharp pains kept me in misery.
The kidney secretions were scanty and painful in passage. One box of Doan's Kidney Pills greatly relieved me."

More than five years later, Mr.
Knagge said: "I am entirely free from kidney trouble now and don't have any more backache. I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit for this."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't

Goodland Items.

Spring is coming! Spring is here!
This is the resurrection time of the year. Farmers are sowing oats and plowing for corn; gardens are being planted and peach and plum trees are blooming.

The telephone line between Goodland and Goodwater is sadly out of repair. The service is miserable.

Grandma Brooks, who has been very seriously ill at the home of her son, James, received word that her daughter's son, Simon Brakefield, at Sugar Grove, was very sick. We learned since that the young man was in a fair way to recover. Mrs. Brake-field has buried her husband and six of her children.

Rev. A. Pryor received word lately of the death of his brother, Edward, at Flat River.

Dewey Smith and sister, Ora, are spending a week with friends in Desloge.

Mr. Lutman, of Desloge, lately spent a few days at Goodland and expects to return soon and work awhile among the timber.

Our teacher, Mr. Downard, went home sick last Monday; consequently we had no school last week.

N. W. Adams has his oats sown.
Clifford took a load of ties to East and this week.

J. L. Brooks made another trip to Brule lately for feed.

Dr. Adams has been quite under the weather for some days, but the last we heard from him was that he was out killing squirrels.

Mr. Schum, who occupied a dwelling on the Adams farm, has moved to Redmondville.

Mrs. Clara Strickland has been seriously ill with heart trouble. She is just a little better at this time.

Mr. Pippin's three-year-old boy, Andy, ran away one day lately and was found at the back mill. There was quite an excitement for awhile, and the telephone was busy till the little one was restored to his mother.

There was no church last Sunday, as the pastor failed to come, but quite a number met to organize one Sunday School which will hold at two o'clock each Sunday afternoon at Redmondville.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayfield, March 29.
Mrs. Troutman tells us that she is again a grandmother. A new little daughter having arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Bower.

There will be M. E. services at Edge Hill on the fifth Sunday in April.
Easter comes next.

is filed with said petition as provided by law.)

And unless they be and appear at
